Gentlemen:-

According to my record, I ordered two Bronze Joseph Hodges Choate Medals, whereas your receipt of April 25th calls for delivery to me of only one. I confirm my order for two medals, and will ask you to check up the account, and see that the proper delivery is made.

Very truly yours,

Harry Harkness Flagler

Dear Mr. Flagler:

Thank you for calling attention to our error in acknowledging your order for two bronze Choate medals. I find that through some mistake the entry had been made for one bronze medal instead of two. This I am having corrected, and you should receive one of these medals the first of next week and the second about ten days later.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
